

Study Day Programme 2017

Thursday 26 October 2017 • NCVO, London

0915	Registration and exhibition opens
0950–1000	Welcome and introduction Shaun Watson, Chelsea and Westminster Hospital NHS Foundation Trust Jacqueline Hale, Homerton University Hospital, London
1000–1045	A session on Generics Sonali Sonecha, Chelsea and Westminster Hospital NHS Foundation Trust
1045–1115	Anabolic steroid users, high risk sexual behavior and injecting issues Geoff Bates, Public Health Institute, Liverpool John Moores University
1115–1145	Refreshments
1145–1230	Young people, late teens living with HIV Sona Djerrahian, Body & Soul
1230–1315	HIV positive parenting and disclosing to children Lizzie Jordan, Patient Representative, Doncaster
1315–1400	Lunch
1400–1430	U=U: PrEP – Treatment as prevention Marc Thompson, Positively UK
1430–1500	Sustaining community involvement Paul Decle, Forum Link Robert James, Birchgrove
1500–1545	Consent, disclosure and duty of care (a lawyer's perspective) Matthew Weait, University of Portsmouth
1545	Evaluation and close

NHIVNA Study Day 2017 Sponsors

www.nhivna.org Registered Charity No: 1099074