

This educational event is supported by

Patient engagement for the newly diagnosed working professionals

Beth Freeborn, SCFT

Mark Mills

www.nhivna.org

Barriers of Getting to Zero

Patient engagement for the newly diagnosed working professionals

Beth Freeborn, SCFT

Mark Mills, Executive Assistant to Deputy Global Group Chief Executive Officer & Global Chief People Officer at OLIVER/Inside Ideas Group

www.nhivna.org

Barriers of Getting to Zero Q&A

- 1. Tell us about your initial experiences of HIV services when you were diagnosed.*
- 2. What was your understanding of the Sussex Beacon and how did it make you feel when you were offered a place the same day as your initial clinic appointment?*
- 3. Tell us about the literature & reading materials you were given and those you found online*
- 4. What impact has community HIV nursing had on your overall journey?*

Barriers of Getting to Zero – Barriers Overview

- 1. Literature & Reading Materials*
- 2. Personalisation from the 'get go'*
- 3. Delayed or zero engagement of Community HIV Nursing*
- 4. Training for business on how to support working professionals with a HIV diagnosis*

Welcome to MY.HIV

Find help & support through a lived experience.

<https://www.instagram.com/my.hiv/>

LinkedIn

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/mark-mills-62229338/>

www.nhivna.org

